DESCRIPTION

Ultra-resistant nylon cable available in 1.2M and 2M. The length makes it perfect to use with your MacBook with Type-C connectors or any other laptop with USB-C ports.

The nylon structure makes the cable very resistant and offers an awesome finish. A second layer is added around the cable to offer an extra protection.

The extra-slim connectors makes the cable compatible with most cases on the market, while the aluminum structure offers great durability.

The high output of the cable allows you to quickly charge your iPhone, iPad or iPod.
